

Media Tables

Overview

BRC's sleek and modern Media Tables are designed with a bullet shape top and architectural base on one end, with a large, sturdy media panel on the other. Our Media Tables are designed for both wall and freestanding applications. Power and technology options may be added for AV equipment supplied by third parties. Both the media panel and architectural base provide space for hidden and organized cable pass-through. Media tables are a necessity in today's evolving work models, as the demand grows for video conferencing, training and virtual meetings. Promote collaboration and teamwork with BRC's modern Media Tables.
